EARLY in the craft year which began on 19 July 1557, and was the first of the chartered existence of the Stationers' Company, John Waley, or Wally, entered what was no doubt the present play on the Register along with several other works. The entry runs as follows:

To master John wally these bokes Called Welth and helthe/the treatise of the ffrere and the boye/stans puer ad mensam another of youghte charyte and humylyte an a b c for cheldren in engleshe with syllabes also a boke called an hundreth mery tayles . . . . . ij<sup>a</sup> [Arber's Transcript, I. 75.]

That Waley printed an edition is therefore to be presumed, but it does not necessarily follow that the extant copy, which though perfect bears neither date nor printer's name, ever belonged to it. Indeed, a comparison with a number of works to which he did affix his name suggests grave doubts on the subject. Though not a high-class printer, there seems no reason to ascribe to him a piece of work which for badness alike of composition and press-work appears to be unique among the dramatic productions of the sixteenth century.

'Wealth and health' appears among the titles in the list of plays appended to the edition of Goffe's Careless Shepherdess, printed for Rogers and Ley in 1656. The entry was repeated with the designation 'C[omedy].' in Archer's list of the same year, and, without the addition, in those of Kirkman in 1661 and 1671. In 1691 Langbaine wrote 'Wealth and Health, a Play of which I can give no Account.' Gildon has no further information to offer, nor have any of his immediate followers. Chetwood, in 1752, classes it among 'Plays Wrote by Anonymous Authors in the 16th [by which he means the seventeenth] Century,' calls it 'an Interlude' and dates it 1602. This invention was only copied in those lists which depended directly on Chetwood's, such as the Playhouse Pocket-Companion of 1779. Meanwhile, in his Companion to the Play-House of 1764, D. E. Baker, relying upon Coxeter's notes, gave an essentially accurate description of the piece, except that he asserted it to be 'full of Sport and mery Pastyme,' and described it as an octavo. This entry has been copied by subsequent bibliographers, none of whom have seen the original.

The play was among those discovered in Ireland in the spring of 1906 and sold at Sotheby's on 30 June, when it was purchased for the British Museum at the price of one hundred and ninety-five pounds. Its press-mark is C. 34. i. 25.

The extremely careless typography of the original makes the task of reprinting a difficult one. Ordinary misprints abound, and these have been scrupulously retained, a list of irregularities being added below. It has, however, proved impossible to arrive at any satisfactory method of distinguishing between 'n' and 'u.' In the first hundred lines, which are by no means the worst printed, there are thirty-two cases in which the letter is indistinguishable, eighteen cases of an apparent 'u' which should be 'n,' and seven cases of an apparent 'n' which should be 'u.' When it is further remembered that there are few cases in which it is possible to say for certain that a letter really is what it appears to be, and none in which it may not be turned, some idea of the difficulty in the way of reprinting will be obtained. To have followed the original in this matter would have been to introduce another misprint into at least every fourth line, while even so several hundred cases would have remained which could only have been decided according to the apparent sense of the passage. The only rational course was to treat the letters as indistinguishable throughout, and to print in each instance whichever the sense seemed to require. Again, as the superscript letters 'c,' 'e,' 't,' are seldom distinguishable, the printer has been given the benefit of the doubt. Another difficulty arose in connection with the speakers' names. In the original these have often dropt from their proper places, which can now only be ascertained from the sense and the not very regular indentation. With some hesitation it has been decided to restore them to the positions they should apparently occupy, noting all cases in which they are a line or more out in the original. Lastly it may be remarked that in the speeches which aim at imitating foreign languages the apparent readings of the very indistinct original have been scrupulously reproduced, and no attempt has been made, even in the subjoined list, to suggest any corrections.

In the last sheet some of the pages are cropt at the foot. In most cases nothing more than the catchword has disappeared, and although between lines 768 and 769 something seems to be lost, it is doubtful whether this is due to the cropping, since DI<sup>v</sup> has already one line too many.

The original is printed in the ordinary black letter of the period, of the body known as English (20 ll. = 94 mm.).

Welth. Welth hath ben euer in this countrey And here I purpose styll foꝛ to be Foꝛ this is the lande most mete foꝛ me
And here I wyll endure.

Health Therin ye speake full louingle Foꝛ in this realme welth should be yeth no displeasure I pray you hartely
But in the way of communicacion.

And foꝛ pastyme I would speake some wayes
Of no comparison, noꝛ to you no dyspayre,
I doo not intende that maner alwayes,
But foꝛ a recreation, wealth Brother what soeuer ye say to me.

I wyll heare you paciently
I am content and I thanke you hartely
Begyn and say your pleasure

Health I thanke you hartely then wyll I
Some what vnto my purpose apply Though welth be praised maruallously yet to myne vnderstanding.

50

Welth is mutable, and that iu shame
And welth is hauty and proude of name
Welth ts cruell, and in great blame Foꝛ welth is euer wauerynge.

wealth. To whom haue I doone any harme can ye say, ye stander me nowe, yet I trust I may Aunswere foꝛ my selte in euery maner way ye wyl not deny that?

Health God foꝛbyd but ye should do so
And ye may doo it whether I wyl oꝛ no Inlykewise, I must answer you also When ye say not true.

60

Though I be but to you a pooze man yet helth I height, the same I am That is detyred vniuertally than Some calles me as good as you

As I, mary ther in deede ye do compare.
Such wordes myght bynge you soone in care

Welth.

Of what substaunce I am

Pes I can tell what you are, be not dyspleased welth is of great substaunce, that cannot be denyed yet shew your comodities, and ye shalbe answered
I promyse you welth is fugitiue.

Health.

What sayst thou, am I a fagetyue wealth

I was neuer so taken vp in my lyfe Noz called vnure, well I wyll make no stryfe yet where as thou dost say,

80 Thai I shoulde how my commodityes alwayes

The best for my selfe wherof I aske prayse yf I shoulde stand her all my lyfe dayes yet I coulde not say.

Noz halfe the benefites that commeth of me yt cannot be tolde noz resyted thortly Welth is the floure of althing earthly That you cannot denye.

ferste god saue, our soueraine Ladye the Queene
With all the counsel and all that with them bene

90 Am not I welth with them euer at ene

Who shoulde be there but I?

Men of the lawe, and ioly ryche marchauntes
There be welthy both of goodes and lands,
Without comparyson is in their handes
I welth hatg all freasure.

Health. O good sye, of whom commeth all this
Of god only, to you no thanke I trow
And yet mans welth stands not all in ryches
I dare saye that boldly,

Whan a man hath a competent liuing
With the grace of god that passeth all thyng
Loue of his neyghbour, and good reportyng
Then is he welthy,

Welth of goodes is but a fame
He is welthy that hath a good name Euery wyse man wyll coueyte the same
For otherwelth I not reche

If a man haue neuer so much good name Euerywise man wyll coueyte the same if his dtsposicions be nought and wood
Then he is but a wretch,

Welth. Nay thou art a wretch, and a foole vntwyse welth of ryches thus to despyse
Dost thou not se all the worlde aryse
By goodes and substaunce

He that hath plenty of syluer and golde
May haue all thyng whatsoever he woulde
Whan can welth lacke, seing all thing is solde
And welth is of assuraunce.

Health I denye that, your sayyng is nought Grace, heauen, nor cunning, cannot be bought without great paine, and good dedes wrought Els man cannot them haue.

wealth Stop thereat, and hold thy peace
May not men by heauen with richesse
As to bylde churches and make bye wayes
Such deedes mans soule doth saue

Hea, but yet ye must marke one thyng yf these goodes came with wronge doyng 130 Shall ye haue heauen for so spendyng
Or yet any mede.

Health

May nay except that man himselfe doo meeke
And make respytance the ryght honour to seeke Els all such good dedes is not woth a leeke welth hereof take heede.

Why thinkest thou that all men which hath welth wealth.
Getteth they goodes with byby and stealeth
Thy repoyte is nought therfore Helthe
I counsell thee to say the best.

140 So I wyll, but yet I must say true
And now a lyttle more I wyll say to you
Such sorowe and care welth doth byewe
He is seldome in rest.

Health

When a man is a lyttle hit and welthy
And hath in his chesse treasures plentye
Then wyl he wangle, and do shredly
By his power and might.

With his neighboures he wyl go to lawe

150 And a wreke his malyce for valew of strawe Welth is fykle and out of awe
Wylfull in wronge or ryght

Thou speakest with a flaunderous tonge
All of euyl wyll, and yet it is wronge welth in this realme hath bin longe
Of me commeth great honour.

Welth.

Because that I welth hath great port
All the worlde, hyther doth resorte
Therfore I welth, am this realmes comfort,
And here I wyll indure.

Helth. So I wold ye should, and I shall do the same Helth I am called, and that is my name
If I would not abyde heere I were to blame
For here I am well cherished

Yet say your selfe, how indifferently
And if euery man doo not loue me
Helth as well as welth, yes verely
Therof I dare be reported

Welth. Why should they loue thee? that woulde I knowe
As wel as me, I pray you howe
I am the superiour of hie and lowe
No man may compare with me.

170

Helth. To shew why I wyl not be afraied
For I can bide by that I haue sayde
Of welthy men be very well apayd
Or mucche they set you by.

But of welth, if they haue neuer so much Goodes, tryasure and golde, and be called ryche
Yet yfthey lacke helth, there payne is suche
That they were better dye.

A man to were golde, and be in payne
What ioy hath he? none, but would be fayne
To giue all his treasure for helth playne
Or els he were very mad:

180

For if a man be neuer so poure
Yet if he haue helth, that is a treasure,
Then for his liuing, he may labour
And in his harte be glad,

Welth. I neuer marked thus mucche, nor vnderstood
That helth was such a treasure, and to man so good Wherfore I am sorry, and I wil chaunge my moode
Now I pray you forgiue me.

190

I will forgiue oz els I were to blame
And I pray you to forgiue me the same I loue you hartly, and wyll prayse your name yf it please you to keepe my company.

 And we wyl hye vs after apace
 And when we come we shall set you in case
 To haue a lpying alway.
 Health Then loke ye do both truely and iust
 For we must put you in great trust
 All our houshoulde guide ye must Behaue you selfe well.
 wytte Maisters feare not for I haue wit inough
 To beguple my selfe, and to beguple you 500
 I haue begyled many one I may say to you I pray you kepe that in councell liberty. Beware of that, what doth he say?
 Beguple vs all, yet I charge ye nay
 He shall not beguile vs yf I may I wyl beware betyme.
 Wyl. Syr be not angry I you praye the foole woteth not he doth say He meneth chat he wil be profitable alw ay
 And saue you many thinges. 510 what

What he meaneth I cannot tell
But his saying is not well
Depart hence syz by my counsell
And tary vs at our lodging.

¶ Now and it please ye, wyll ye here any synging Therein I tell you I am somewhat connyng ye shall heare and ye list.

I pray you oardon vs, we know not what ye be ye seme a man of honour, and of great auctozity

Syz to know wherfoze ye come we are desyrous
I am he that ought foz to be well knownen
Of you thze specially, and of duetie
Great payne and busines as foz mine owne
Foz you I haue taken because I loue you hartely To maintaine you is all my desyre and faculty yet hard it is to doo, the people be so variable 540 And many be so wilfull, they will not be refoznable.

Syz I pray you pardon vs of our ignoraunce now
I se well ye know vs better than we do you

Remdi I pardon you, for I doo know you wel both welth, and helth, is your right names
The which England to forbere were very loth
For by welth and helth commeth great fames
Many other renlmes for our great welth shames
That they dare not presume, nor thy dare not be bold
To stryue againe England, or any right with holde.

Health Sir ye be welcom, I besech you show vs your name 550 remedi Good remedy forsooth I am the same.
liberti. If I durst be so bolde I wolde pray you hartely
To shewe vs apart of your great aceozitie,

R md My actozitie is geuen to me most speciall To maintaine you thre, in this realme to be What mine intent is. I wyl tel, but not all
For that were to longe to reherse of a surety
And I desyre you all for to be louing to me
For your owne ease, come welth and profyt

Wealth Good remedy, then we must desyre your apdyng 560
For by good remedy cometh all our preferring.

Remdi All that I doo intende, if ye wil therto agree
And to be refozmable for your owne ease
It is not the thyng that lieth only in me
But my good wyl, therfore I wyl not cease
To haue your loue and fauour, and thereby to please Al the woylde ouer, and to promote ehis realme
That you thre may prosper, ye percelue what I mene
The chiefe parte of all welth lyeth in great estates
Theyr substance and landes. is right commendable 570
Prelates of the churche is welthy of ryches Merchautes hath marchaūdise & goods incōperable Mē of law & franklins is welthy which is laudable thus

Thus welth of riches is deuided diuerse wayes
And to these many charges, come now a dayes

My hert reioyseth to here your good reporting Health
Such are we bound to god, which prouideth althing Forsooth here is not halfe that I could reherse Remedi

Remedy was here, and he dyd flatter ye trust he moze than vs and better But marke the ende, what ye shal find

wytte

With good remedy we spake in dede
To folow his counsel we had neede
He warned vs that we should take hede

Health

710 Of excesse and prodigalitie.

I meruayle ye speake so of good remedy
It is I that can do moze than he Wyt can make shyft at necessity
When Remedi cannot be hearde

Wytte

I know some that hath this thousand yere Sought god remedy and yet neuer the nere wit can put remedy by, yea this is cleare
For wit is a crafty lad.

And wyl is an vnggracious stay

Wyll.

720 Wyl hath doone many thinges men say And yf ye let wit and wil goe his way ye wil repent it soone.

Why what cause haue you to go your way ye shall abyde wich vs though you say nay
I wyl folow wyl, and wit alway
And so I haue euer done liberty

yf I wist al my masters wolde so do Then from your serupce I wolde not goo Speake now whether ye wyl oz no

wytte.

730 And let vs know your minde

Syz ye be welco me to me playne
And for your company I am full sayne
I had leuer suffer great payne
Then to leue my wit and wyl,

Health

D.i.

Wyll. Then let vs go hence, with kindnes my her ye do kyl Health I pray you let vs go, wherfoze do we byde styll.

and goeth out

Remdi As touching my first purpose hither I am com again
I trow ye know me, good remedy is my name
That euery day doth take great .aborz oz payne To amende all faultes, I am chossen to the same yf any mans conscience here doth grudge oz shame Hauing in him self remorse, & mendes in tyme & space
I am good remedy, and god is ful of mercy and grace Therfoze I wyl stand asyde, & a lyttel whyle remaine
Of welth, helth and Lybertye, for to inquire
How they be ordred, and yf any man complayne
I wil be glad to shew me remedy, my think I se one a peare.

 helth, Com away ye theues, now I shal kepe you surely, Wyl. Lock vs vp & kepe vs as fast as ye can (& goth out yet yll wyl and shrewdwit shalbe with many a man.
 Remdi I am halfe ashamed, that long it hath ben sayd That noble men by such wretches hath ben deceiued they did reioyce and iest, and were very well apaide Crusting to scape cleare, and styl for to haue rained
 But now they shall not so, let them be wel assured 900 that

That yllwyl and shrewde wyt shal haue but yll rest
For wheresoever they be I wyl breake theyr nest
In the honour of god we aske you forgeuenes althye wealth we ought to be ashamed to looke you in the face By our foly & negligence, we haue done so vniwisely we were fowle deceyued, we put vs to your grace Thys haibe a good warding for vs alonge space whan man is wel punished then he wyl beware who that knoweth what nede is, wel after drede care

910 I may not blame you gretly for by mine owne reaso Remdi
I know yllwyl and shrewdwyt deceiueh great & smal yf ye can remaibe thys. and beware a nother season
This is a good example and lerning to you all
Now serue god and loue him, & for grace euer call And yllwyl and shrewdewyt, from you I shall abstaine ye haue vled them to longe to your domage and pain.

Forsoth syr ye sai trouth, they did vs great displeur health.
Full hard it is to vanquish the vngrocious yllwyl he is so croked, by flattery, dissulation & such other

920 Gannes mynd is so variable, & glad to report yll
I feare many one yet wolde haue him raine styll
For some vnto their owne wyl hath so much affection yet the deuyll and yll wyl is both of one complexion yll wyll is nought, but worse is shrewdwyt liberty= For he contryueth al subtil ymanginacien yt were vnposyble for a man els to doo it shrewdwyt hreweh mylcef, & false conspyracion he hath put me lyberty in prison, ad great tribulacion if it had not bene for your good remedi & fortheraũce

930 I & other h̄ hath libertie, shold haue bē in duraunce.

We al of good chere, and haue no mistrust Remdi
The ende of yll wyl and shrewd wyt is but shame
Though they reggne a while, wrongfully and vniust yet

yet truth wyll appeare and their misdedes blame
Then wronge is subdued, and good remedy tane
Though falsehood cloke, and hide his matters all Craft wyll out and disceite wyll haue a fall

Whereas ye are now, in distresse all three Deare were ye brought in case lyke to marre
Now haue ye no doubt, yf ye wyll be ruled after me 940

I shal restore ye agayne as well as euer ye were Welth kepe styll this realme, looke ye stray not farre
And helth be of good chere, your disease I can soone Liberty now ye be released do no moze offend, (mēde wealth Now let vs al thāke god y good remedy hath sende Trust to hym only for his grace and goodnes we are forgiuenes of our trespas I trust we wil amēd And cleane forlake syn, foly, and vnthriftines th<sup>o</sup> we wil here cōclude, soueraine of your graciousnes we besech you to remyt our negligence, & misbehauoꝝ 950

There we haue sayd amis, we cōmit al to your fauoꝝ

Health And for your preseruacion hartely we wyl pray your realme to increase, with ioy and tranquility
That welth, helth & liberty, may continue here alway
By the ouersight and aide of him that is good remdy which willingly doth his deuer, vnder your actozitye
As parte here apereth your purpose to maintaine
